

The Homeowner Association is pleased to share with you information on how to access tools for improved communication regarding our neighborhood community.

How To Access Your Homeowners Association Website

1. Go to: www.providenceatreams.org
2. Go to: Members: Log In Here, top left of webpage
3. View: New to this site: click sign up
4. Provide your email, address, create password
5. Click: sign up

At this point, our HOA secretary will receive notification of your request and grant you access to your HOA website.

How To Access Our HOA's Private NextDoor Site

1. Go to: NextDoor.com
2. Click: sign up
3. Provide email, and create password
4. Join: West Providence group
5. Under groups: search for Providence at Reams

At this point, our HOA secretary will receive notification of your request and grant you access to our private neighborhood site.

Participation in the Providence at Reams website and Providence at Reams Nextdoor page is strictly optional and restricted to owners and residents of our Providence neighborhood. Any contact information that you publicly share on the website may be used to update our neighborhood online directory. By participating with these 2 sites, you agree not to share or distribute other homeowners' information without their permission. Care is taken to protect everyone's privacy.
